Adult Programs

Sunday Classes and Groups

Christian Education Building (CEB)- 9:15 to 10:15 AM

20—Something Fellowship

Room Above Office—Scott Miller, Barry Frey

The group will begin focusing on the book, Crazy Love, by Frances Chan—which tackles the relentlessness of God’s love.

Liquid—God’s Word flowing through your life

3rd floor of CEB—Pastor Mark Breland, Deb Hornberger

The Liquid Class is a study and fellowship group that uses contemporary videos produced by Liquid and Nooma to address common issues that Christians face everyday. Participants are encouraged to share their views on the scripture text of the day and apply the lesson to their lives. If you are single, married with children or not, you are welcome. Childcare is available in the nursery.

Keeping Holy Time

Eschbach Parlor—Tom Snavelly, coordinator

This class is led by a variety of leaders which provides many different viewpoints. The leaders are: Tom Snavelly, coordinator, Dianne Zimmerman, Clair Ginder, Jerry Griffin, and Greg Bomberger. This year we plan on starting Sept. 13 with a study on — “What My Church Means To Me.” It will raise questions about what we expect from our church experience, why we selected to join this church and what does it mean to other members. Most of the time, the class studies the lectionary readings for the Sunday worship service, but occasionally we will look at other topics through the year.

Seekers

Heritage Dining Room (basement of CEB)

John Reidenbaugh & Pastor Dean Jurgen

In September, this class is using a great new video series, “Nooma”, that speaks a Biblical truth into our needs in surprising ways. Come for a new perspective each week with a short video on issues we care about and will talk about together. Then beginning October 11, Dr. David Birch will lead a 4-week class: “Islam 101”.
